The Northern Pacific.

OTTAWA, 19.—It has been announced here that the Northern Pacific will withdraw from its connection in the Canadian Northwest in a few months. A Boston syndicate has bought the Magdalen Islands in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, for half million dollars.

Prisoners Plotting to Escape.

KINGSTON, 24.—A. Battery are now at the penitentiary, where they were called on Saturday morning. It transpired that the reason of their presence is a plot on the part of the prisoners to escape, which has been revealed to the warden by one of the conspirators. The Kingston Penitentiary Plot.

OTTAWA, 25.—Deputy Minister of Justice Sedgewick having been seen by a reporter said:—"We received notification of the plot at the Kingston penitentiary on Thursday last, through Warden Lavell, who arrived here in person. The uprising was neatly nipped in the bud; the intelligence of the mutiny was received from one of the convicts, who was friendly to the warden, and warned him secretly so that he might escape with his life. Information of the plot also reached us from an outside source by a man who had been applied to for means to escape, if the mutiny was successful." The uprising was to be general; at a given signal the convicts were to rush on the guards and overpower them; then securing the arms and ammunition kept always in the penitentiary, they would not have been afraid of anything, and would have made a break for liberty. The inmates made an escape being by water, the seizure would have been made of a steamer or ship and the free convicts would have sailed for the other side.

PARIS, 21.—The Saleil says that Germany has made a demand upon France for compensation for the arrest of an alleged spy named Leckmer, near Belfort, in the frontier apartment of Hant Rhin, on Whit Sunday. French officials declare that the document found on Leckmer justified his arrest.

The Czar Refuses.

LONDON, 22.—The Czar of Russia refuses to permit young Prince Philip of Hohenlohe to accept his portion of the estate of his uncle, Prince Wittgenstein. This decision of the Czar causes intense irritation in Berlin, for although Prince Philip has become a Russian by naturalization, he is the son of Prince Hohenlohe, German governor of Alsace Lorraine, and the Czar's action is felt to be a blow aimed at Germany and the Germans, more especially as the claim of the young Prince was vigorously supported by Bismarck.

News From London.

LONDON, 19.—Stanley's agent here is arranging a lecture tour for him for October. His return before autumn is considered certain.

At Ascot, the race for the Prince of Wales' stakes was won by Donovan, with Royal Star second and Penthusian third. Parnell's appeal against the postponement of his libel suit against the Times has been dismissed with costs.

Prospects of a War Discussed.

DUBLIN, 19.—At Armagh four employees of the Sunday School excursion train which was wrecked near Armagh with such fatal results, were arraigned in court and charged with felonious killing. The prisoners are McGrath, the engineer; Parkinson, the fireman; Moorehead, the guard and Elliot, the traffic manager's clerk. The magistrate discharged Parkinson. A passenger on the train testified that when the train was stopped on the grade, Moorehead placed a stone under a wheel of the last carriage and uncoupled a number of the carriages. The detached portion immediately descended the grade at a rapid rate. The doors of all the cars were locked. The court adjourned. McGrath and Moorehead were released on bail.

Prince Bismarck Determined to Make Matters Interesting.

BERLIN, 22.—Prince Bismarck is carrying out his apparent purpose of picking a quarrel with Switzerland with a bareface animosity which is most surprising even to the iron chancellor. The Nord Deutsche Zeitung, speaking as his mouthpiece, declares that the Swiss have already established a caste belli, and makes the lavishly false statement that had Switzerland behaved toward any other power as she has toward Germany, war certainly would have been made upon her. The palpable purpose of this forced reasoning tallies with the report that the attack on Switzerland is a part, and the initial part of Bismarck's scheme to cut into France and to carry out a contract with Italy and Austria for the weakening of her western neighbors. That the attempt to put in effect the eastern part of the bargain will result in discomfiture to Hoping is probably an additional reason for it in the minds of Bismarck and Emperor William.

A Strange Find.

VINEYARD HAVEN, Mass., 25.—Among the wreckage coming ashore yesterday was a life preserver marked "City of Rome," a bundle of women's clothing; wine cards of the Haytian Republic, and a quantity of woodwork. Everything points to a collision between the Victoria and the Haytian Republic, but the life preserver from the City of Rome adds to the mystery.

Commits Suicide.

HELENA, 24.—The sheriff of Cascade County arrested a man named Hamilton Wilber yesterday on a charge of having murdered the five emigrants in Judith County. The prisoner was taken to Great Falls jail where he shortly afterwards suicided by hanging himself with a towel.

Devoured by Wolves.

KANSAS CITY, 21.—Two children aged ten and twelve years of age, of farmer Edward Beeson, living at Rosier, went fishing last Thursday. They failed to return at night, and searching parties were organized to look for them. Their bones were found Friday evening near a ledge of rocks that had long been known as a wolf den. Aughinbaugh plunged in after her, but failed to find her. He succeeded in boarding the schooner. They were both employed in the office of the "Quill," a temperance organ of this city.

Our Relations are Peaceful.

WORCESTER, 19.—Senator Hoar reached here yesterday, after his western trip with the senate committee on trade relations with Canada. He says that the impression that the fortifications at Esquimaux, Vancouver, were a menace to the U. S., were unfounded as the island has not the natural advantage necessary to make it a formidable fortification. He was satisfied that the ties of affection between Canada and the United States are a guarantee of peace.

The Grand Jury Return an Indictment Against Martin Burke.

CHICAGO, 20.—The Grand Jury has returned an indictment against Martin Burke, who is held in Winnipeg, charging him with the murder of Dr. Cronin. The indictment is on two counts; the first being an unqualified charge of murder, while the second alleges conspiracy to do murder, and names Frank Woodruff, Dan Coughlin, P. O. Sullivan and other unknown persons as being also conspirators.

The Helena Tragedy.

HELENA, Mont., 22.—Parties in Judith County have recovered the bodies of the victims of the late tragedy. They are supposed to have been a family of four persons from Iowa and Illinois. CRONIN'S CASE AND THE IRISH CAUSE.

The investigation into the Cronin mystery at Chicago is interesting as displaying to public view the aims and methods of the American Fenians. The developments must be a little startling to Americans, showing that the Clan na Gael was really as much interested in manipulating national politics in the United States as in relieving England of the trouble of ruling Ireland. One of the witnesses examined, Luke Dillon, of Philadelphia, the representative of Dr. Cronin's eastern friends, testified that Cronin had frequently said to him that he believed that to further his ambition to rule American and Irish politics Sullivan would murder him. The American papers commenting upon this testimony point out that these Irish conspirators place their ambition to rule American politics before their desire to get the management of Irish affairs into their own hands and Americans are beginning to show alarm at the constantly increasing accumulation of proof that the so-called Irish patriotic leagues in the States are part of a huge political machine designed to keep up the supremacy of the wire pulling rings of Irish American politicians. One paper seriously suggests the organization of American leagues for the purpose of liberating the nation from the thralldom imposed upon it by the so-called Irish leagues.

It is evident that genuine Americans are beginning to become thoroughly disgusted with the Fenian element, which in the name of liberty has been allowed to prosper in the United States to the great danger as proved now of national independence. It now only remains for all loyal Irishmen in Ireland to become disgusted and disown all connection with these gentry, to effect a great change upon the mind of the British public with respect to the Home Rule movement. Once let the British public feel assured that Parnellism has completely separated itself from Fenianism and the Emerald Isle will not have long to wait for Home Rule, and the prosperity and happiness her purely patriotic people have so long striven for and deserve. If the expose of Fenianism now going on at Chicago tends to completely separate from the Fenians all those honest home rulers who are conscientiously desirous of a settlement of the Irish difficulty, the Cronin incident will not have been without great benefit to the Irish Cause.

ALL SORTS OF THINGS.

Montreal shippers report a market in Liverpool for much more cheese than can be procured in Canada. The shipments are constantly increasing. Last week 39,274 cheeses were shipped from Montreal as against 30,211 last year. The merchants say that they can handle as much more cheese as they can now get. Here is the chance for our infant Alberta cheese industries.

The people of eastern Canada are rapidly getting over the feeling of hostility manifested towards Mr. Dewdney, when Sir John, in compliance with the unanimous desire of the people of western Canada, took the honorable gentleman into his cabinet. Our brethren in the east have already pretty well found out what we knew all the time, that the charges of incapacity made against Mr. Dewdney at the time he was our lieutenant governor, were falsehoods manufactured out of whole cloth by his adversaries for political purposes. Mr. Dewdney is rapidly getting into touch with the people down east; as soon as he does his place in their esteem and affection is assured. At Montreal the other day he attended a military demonstration and made fast friends of all whom he met.

The Toronto Mail has been reproving the Dominion and Provincial governments for extravagance because the salaries, mileage and contingent expenses of the members of the Provincial and Dominion Governments last year amounted to nearly $3,000,000. The Buffalo Courier, however, rises to make a comparison and it does so as follows:—The salaries, mileage and contingent expenses of the members of the United States Congress last year amounted to over $3,300,300. There are 726 members of the Canadian Provincial and Dominion Governments, and there are 401 members of the United States Congress. If each member of the former body had cost as much as each member of the latter, the expenses of the Canadian Government last year would have been nearly $6,000,000, instead of less than $3,000,000.

POSTAGE CHANGES.

The New Tariff and Postal Regulations.
[From Wednesday's Daily.]

The Postmaster-General has issued an order to postmasters, calling attention to the amendments to the Postoffice Act of last session. The more important of them are as follows:—

1. The registration fee upon letters and upon all matter transmissible by mail within the Dominion of Canada to Newfoundland or the United States will be five cents, to be prepaid by stamp. All classes of matter posted in and addressed to Canada may be registered.

2. The rates of postage on letters passing from one postoffice to another within the Dominion or to the United States is three cents per ounce, or fraction thereof, to be prepaid by postage stamp. Letters addressed to any place in Canada upon which any postage has been prepaid by stamp, are to be forwarded to their destination charged with double the amount of postage there on, not so prepaid, which amount is to be collected on delivery.

3. The postage upon "drop letters," that is, letters posted and delivered at the same post office, is one cent per ounce, to be prepaid by postage stamp, except in cases where there is a delivery by letter carriers, when the rate is two cents per ounce, to be prepaid by postage stamp. Letters posted at suburban post-offices where there is no delivery by letter carriers addressed to the cities where there is a delivery by letter carriers, of which such offices as suburbs, will be charged two cents.

4. The rate of postage of newspapers and periodical publications printed and published in Canada, and issued less frequently than at intervals of one month from a known office of publication or news agency and addressed and posted by and from the same to regular subscribers or news agents, and on all specimen newspapers, is one cent per pound or fraction of a pound, to be prepaid by postage stamp or otherwise, as the Postmaster-General from time to time directs.

5. The following changes have been made in the definition of a newspaper: Such newspaper or periodical is known and recognized as a newspaper or periodical in the generally received sense of the word, and consists wholly or in great part of political or other news, or articles relating thereto, or to other current topics, and is published regularly at intervals of not more than one month. "The full title, place and date of publication and the distinguishing number of the issue are printed at the top of the first and every subsequent page, and also on any paper, lithograph or engraving purporting to be a supplement to it and sent with it."

6. The rate of postage upon all newspapers and periodicals posted in Canada not otherwise provided for, and on books, pamphlets, occasional publications, printed circulars, prices current, handbills and other matter wholly in print, and on packages of seeds, cuttings, bulbs, roots, scions or grafts, patterns or samples of goods or merchandise, is one cent per four ounces or fraction thereof, to be prepaid by postage stamp or stamped post-band or wrapper.

7. Upon all book and newspaper manuscript, printers' proof-sheets, whether corrected or not, maps, prints, drawings, engravings, lithographs, photographs when not on glass or in cases containing glass, sheet music whether printed or written, documents partly printed or written, not being letters or intended to serve the purpose of letters, such as deeds, insurance policies, militia and school returns, or other documents of like nature, and on all other miscellaneous matter transmissible by post not otherwise provided for, the rate of postage is one cent for each two ounces or fraction of two ounces, to be prepaid by postage stamp or stamped post-band or wrapper.

STOCK.

About Cattle.

Our National Stockman.

Every colt should learn to eat a handful of bran and oats twice a day when it is about three weeks old. Then it will gradually take to feed and be in a condition to wean at the proper time, without danger of serious trouble arising from indigestion, which being once changed seldom ever recovers. Remember that the colt in its physical construction is not unlike man and is subject to diseases arising from the same causes, which result often in chronic disorders. When a moderate feed is given a sufficiency of gastric juice is secreted for its solution, digestion goes on rapidly, the coats of the stomach retain their usual healthy appearance, and after an interval of rest a fresh supply of juice is ready to be poured out when required for the speedy digestion of the succeeding meal. But when fed to excess the portion left undissolved begins to ferment and by its physical and chemical properties acts as a local irritant, just as any foreign matter would do, and produces on inflammatory action to the inner coats of the stomach, which necessarily interferes with the secretion, thereby impairing the power of digestion. One word now in favor of the free use of the brush. The little fellow will be shy for a few days, which will induce many owners to conclude that it was not good for the colt, else he would stand still. Try a soft hair brush, night and morning, rubbing well down the hoofs, and in less than a week you will find the colt likes it better than you do. I will not occupy valuable space by explaining the necessity and benefit derived from good grooming, but will simply say, you need have no fear of an overdose. Kindness should be the stable breeder's motto. While the animal is not so sensitive in mind and so susceptible to impression as man, yet the influence of the mind on the vital functions, or rather the power of fear exercised on the animal economy, is a subject of two great importance to be disregarded and ignored. Remember then that kind treatment pays better than abuse or neglect. The natural, even temper of domestic animals rises in rebellion to the wicked abuse of man, and is only soothed by gentleness, as the waves of the ocean rise in proportion to the violence of the winds, and sink with the breeze into mildness and serenity.

More Pasturage.

Rural Messenger.

The great need of many a farm is more pasturage for the cattle, sheep and swine. There is, of course, tolerably fair grazing in the woods during the summer months, but nearly every farmer could do much better than that and have his stock always near by him under his inspection, too, if he would give some attention to providing pasturage at home. If you can not readily have the grasses or clovers let the wild grass of the farm have a chance. Broom sedge and hen's nest are better than no grass at all, and if the bushes and briars were kept down would supply very respectable summer grazing for the stock. In all cases where there are old fields and other surplus lands, that part of the farm should be converted into summer pasturage. An acre of broom sedge is worth, for grazing purposes, $2 or $3 every summer.

And so our native grasses, where it is not convenient to have the cultivated sorts, would pay, if only we would give them a chance to grow—out off the brush and briars, and let in the sunlight. This sort of pasturage is far better than none. Of course we do not mean that the farmer ought to stop at this. But we do mean that it will do for a start, when one cannot do better. more pasturage, better stock; and more manure and more crops for the farmer.

Convert your old fields and waste lands into grazing grounds for the stock, and keep the stock at home. Burn them over in spring, out off the brush, let in the sun, destroy briars and thorns. After a while you will have a respectable sod of short, sweet grass, for grazing improves coarse pasturage. Make more pasturage. Don't kill yourself at the plow handles trying to make a living.

All Hands Happy.

Rocky Mountain Householder.

Notwithstanding we have nothing very encouraging to offer cattle owners in regard to the prospect of a better market for beef, we feel that the cattle outlook is indeed very cheerful. The prospect for grass a few weeks since was somewhat discouraging, but rains and snows have put a better phase on those things and the round-ups can proceed nicely with their work, which we are glad to learn is very encouraging. The calf crop is reported to be excellent everywhere and growers are rapidly regaining their good spirits. There is a good future for the beef grower.

The range owner is gradually coming to the semi-range plan, which is most secure, and soon our herds will be restored to their original numbers and there will be less risk than formerly. All recognize the importance of home ranches, putting up hay, fencing pastures, etc., and the time is not distant when the cattle grower will feel as secure as the wool grower. The hard winter which precipitated a loss of 50 per cent of sheep of Montana has resulted in the wool growers becoming about as securely fixed as any class in Montana, although many lost heavily, and the lesson was a severe one. The same state of things is growing out of cattle losses of a few winters ago. The loss was severe and crippled many growers, but they are getting on their feet again and are preparing to avoid such disasters by preparing hay and pasture, and the splendid calf crop makes all hands happy.

The Thief Arrested.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

A bold theft and clever capture of the thief and booty took place yesterday afternoon. Mr. McNaughton of the southside livery stables, had been at one of the banks yesterday and drew some money, which he placed in a pocket book along with some other money and papers. On returning to the office he took off his coat and hung it up with the money in it, while he attended to something about the stable. In a short time he put on his coat and started down town. While proceeding he thought of his money and felt for his pocketbook, but it was not there. He returned and told his men about it. Suspicion rested on a man named Pat Kennedy, who had in the mean time made a bolt for town. Mr. McNaughton then came over to town in search of Pat, but saw nothing of him. Pat again went to the stable and when the men at the stable attempted to search him he ran away towards the police barracks. One of the men at the stable followed Pat and kept him in sight, while Mr. McNaughton went to the barracks and obtained the services of a policeman who arrested Pat, and on searching him found the money, about $200, in his coat sleeve. He took the money out of the pocket book and hid the pocket book in a badger hole where the man who followed him found it.

Kennedy was brought before Supt. McIlree to day and committed for trial.

Edmonton and District.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Mr. Thos. Elms, of Princetown, County of Brant, has just returned from Edmonton and gives the HERALD his views on that part of the Canadian Northwest. It will be remembered that this gentleman is one of the first excursionists from Ontario this month, and the pleasing report he gave at the opera house meeting of his reception in Calgary, and his trip to the farming country south of this town. He says of the soil in the Edmonton district, that it is very rich, excellent for pasture and probably cannot be surpassed for grain growing in the whole west. Enormous yields of grain being reported last season. A strong evidence of the truth of these reports is that there are thousands of bushels of grain still remaining, which to his mind fully substantiate the statements of the farmers about the extent of the crops. The growing crops are strong and of a healthy color, but at present rain is much needed to keep up the growth. He says the Edmonton district should please any Ontario farmer, so far as the soil and the character of the country is concerned. Timber plentiful enough, but not enough of it to encumber the land, there being plenty of prairie for cultivation and pasture. He found plenty of good pure, cool water, while the people are full of energy, push and hope. But notwithstanding all the natural good qualities of the country, so long as they have no railway facilities, the country cannot make the advancement it should do. In fact while there are 200 miles between Edmonton and a railway, it must suffer materially in its advancement. As soon as a railway is built to Edmonton, he thinks the country will fill up very rapidly and Edmonton would soon become a large town, and in all probability an important city. Mr. Elms concludes by saying that if the weather is sometimes cool at Edmonton, he believes the peoples hearts are always warm.

The Late Mr. Lee.

(From Monday's Daily.)

An inquest was held on Saturday, the 22nd June, inst., at the Northwest Mounted Police Hospital, Calgary, by A. E. Shelton, Esq., coroner for the Northwest Territories of Canada, on the body of the late F. D. Yate Lee. The following gentlemen were empanelled as a jury of inquiry, John L. Bowen, Alexander McBride, J. Stuart Mackie, Watson Bain, A. L. Cameron and James Linton. John L. Bowen was chosen foreman. The jury viewed the body of the deceased. The coroner considered that a post mortem was unnecessary, but Doctor N. J. Lindsay and Dr. Peter Aylen made an examination, who gave evidence as to the direct cause of death. There was nothing special brought out in the evidence more than was published on Saturday, except that the unfortunate young man's neck was dislocated and two of his ribs fractured. His two intimate friends Mr. Ricardo and Mr. Bevan also gave evidence as to the finding of the body etc., which is just as published by the HERALD on the 22nd. The finding of the jury was as follows: That T. D. Yate Lee came to his death between the hours of half past two and seven o'clock in the afternoon of the 21st day of June, 1889, about 20 miles from Calgary, north of the Bow River, by being dragged with a rope round his left hand by a horse, and we do not think that any blame can be attached to any one to our knowledge for the same.

Mr. Ricardo cabled on Saturday to Mr. Yate Lee, barrister of London, father of the deceased, for instructions as to burial of the remains, and received a reply on Sunday morning to have him interred at Calgary. The funeral accordingly took place yestday (Sunday June 23rd) from the Cathedral Church of the Redeemer to the Calgary cemetery. The A.W.F. Cooper, was the officiating clergyman.

Important Meeting.

(From Monday's Daily.)

A full meeting of the directors of the Calgary Agricultural Society was held at the office of the secretary, Chas Sparrow, on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The first question discussed was that of acquiring a loan of $3,000 for improving the association's property. It was unanimously resolved to get the said loan (the money being now at their disposal as soon as they want to use it) and commence the improvements as soon as practicable. A mile race course will be laid out and graded within the grounds, the survey for which will be proceeded with at once. Tenders will be asked for forthwith for the construction of the track, which must be ready for the intended September meeting.

The date of holding the Fall Exhibition was next taken up and it was finally decided that it shall be held on Wednesday and Thursday, the 9th and 10th of October, and the secretary was instructed to get out posters and otherwise advertise the exhibition and races extensively.

It was also resolved to ask the C. P. R. company to give special excursion rates over the line from the east and west at the time of the races and the fall exhibition.

South African Diamond Mines.

The value of South African diamond mines may be judged from the fact that out of Kimberley mines from 1870 to 1885 about £20,000,000 worth of diamond have been taken, while the gross value of the diamonds excavated from De Beers mines during the same period is not much under £9,000,000, representing one and one-half tons weight of precious stones. The Bultfontein mine has yielded about £5,000,000 and the Dutoitspan about £5,000,000, while the annual output of diamond from all the mines is now somewhere about 3,000,000 carats, equal in value to about £4,000,000.

Mr. Samuel Livingstone.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Mr. Samuel Livingstone of the Elbow river, the oldest farmer by all odds in this district, gave us a call yesterday. As so many questions are being asked by our Ontario farmer friends now visiting this country, in reference to the probable future grass supply. We asked Mr. Livingstone what had been his experience in raising timothy on his farm and what he thought could be relied on in that line. He stated in reply that seven years ago he had seeded down a few acres of timothy, which took well and that he had cut a good crop of fine, strong hay from it every year for six years. Was the sample you brought to the HERALD office last summer from that seeding, we asked? Yes, it was from that seeding. We might here say that the sample referred to, measured fifty inches and was in every way equal to any we ever saw during five years' experience as an inspector of farms and property in every county in Ontario. Have you seeded down any more timothy, we asked? Yes, I have now one hundred acres under timothy, it has taken root well and is strong and healthy looking, but will not be so long in the stalk as if it had got more rain. What will be the effect of the timothy on the native grass, do you think? My experience has been that it entirely exterminates the native grass and takes as firm root as I have ever seen anywhere. Then you feel entire confidence in this district as a timothy raising country? Yes, I do. How does this season compare with the past as to rain? I have been here twenty-five years, and this is the driest year but one, out of the twenty-five, and yet the crops are looking fairly well, as our eastern visitors can and do attest.

Mormons for Alberta.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

During the last month a considerable number of emigrants have been passing through Montana en route to British possessions, travelling by wagons. It has been ascertained that they are Mormons from Utah and Idaho, and that their destination is the country through which the Galt railway passes. Some time ago the Northwestern Coal & Navigation Company was approached by an agent of the Mormon hierarchy with a proposition to buy several thousand acres of the Company's land in the Northwest Territory upon which to establish a colony of the saints. The negotiations hung fire for some time, but were completed a little over a month ago. It is not known what the consideration was, nor just how many acres of land were purchased. The deal was a large one, however, and the Province is likely to have a very considerable Mormon population within a short period of time.—Lethbridge News.

A Lively Time.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

A lively row took place on Atlantic Avenue about 4 o'clock this morning. When Constable Barker was trying to get a man who was the worse of liquor to go in quietly off the street, he was interfered with in his duty by a man named Hill Smith, who ordered Barker to let the other man alone, and to enforce his order struck Barker. The policeman finally secured Smith with handcuffs and held him down until the chief was sent for. When the chief came they loaded him up on a wagon and took him to the cells, where he remained till he was brought before George Murdoch, J. P., this morning and fined $20, including costs which was paid. previous to his arrest, Smith tied his horse to a freight car and had the horse not been taken from the car by policeman Barker he would have been killed, as within fifteen minutes after the car was shunted by a train which came into the yard. He also went for two other men on the street besides the policeman, one of whom he followed into the Dining Hall and struck on the face. The other man he struck on the street. The first man that Barker tackled, in the meantime got into the lane and from smelting the bung holes of some casks, got so far was over that he could not navigate, notwithstanding he carried so much steam. This morning Squire Murdoch offered him the freedom of the city if he would deposit $8.00 and some supplementary estimates to the credit of the city exchequer. This Pat refused point blank to concede to, and remains the guest of the corporation.

Elk Perkins on the Northwest.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

There are 200,000,000 acres, a country as large as two Dakotas, Iowa and Nebraska still unsettled on this continent. This country, writes Elk Perkins to his American syndicate of American newspapers is situated mainly in Dakota, on the Sioux reservation between the Missouri River and the Black Hills in Northern Dakota and in Canada, extending from the Canadian border to the Peace and Athabasca rivers. I have travelled over all the country from Sioux City to the Black Hills, from the Black Hills to Helena, from Helena to the Saskatchewan in Canada. This land grows richer as it goes north, the buffalo grass is thicker, and the soil is deeper in the Saskatchewan valleys than in Dakota. The climate grows warmer as you go north.

At Medicine Hat on the South Saskatchewan, last winter the temperature between November and March averaged 35° above zero. They had twelve days of severe cold weather. Many and many days were spent last winter in the Saskatchewan country with doors open. Cattle grazed out all winter and came in fat in the spring. At Medicine Hat 600 miles west of Winnipeg on the C. P. R. I visited the farm of H. S. Scatchard, and saw fields of rye, wheat, Indian corn, tomatoes, and other crops, all maturing and yielding phenomenal crops. Under the farm there are seven feet of coal. Adjoining lands are being sold by the C. P. R. at $3 per acre, with 10 years to pay it in.

Now the question arises with many settlers who want to make a home in a new country how shall I go to work to get a free farm?

Here is the answer. If you want a homestead 160 acres of land in the Canadian Northwest, first write to Mr. H. Smith, the general Government Land Agent for Manitoba, at Winnipeg. He will send you free pamphlets and maps, showing all lands to be had from the Government; also write to L. A. Hamilton, the C. P. R. Land Commissioner at Winnipeg. These gentlemen will give you full information by mail. It makes no difference where you live whether in Texas, England or Pennsylvania, you will get this information free by mail.

"But how shall I get a farm of 160 acres?" you ask.

"When you report to Mr. Hamilton or Mr. Smith of Winnipeg, they will give you letters to sub land agents at Medicine Hat, Regina, Calgary, Battleford or Brandon who will assign you free farms of 160 acres."

"What will this cost me?" you ask.

"It will cost you simply $10 in cash for deeds and papers. When you have lived on your land for three years, six months a year the farm will be yours, and you will be allowed to pre-empt 160 acres more, at $1.50 an acre, making 320 acres. This 320 acres will give any man a superb living. He will be as independent and at the end of fifteen years the land will be worth at least $20 per acre, or $6,400. Any level headed man can do this."

The Governor's Tour.

BATTLEFORD, 20.—The Governor's party arrived yesterday afternoon and were met by a large deputation of Citizens at Bramley and escorted to town. Addressess will be presented today (Thursday)
and the Governor goes to Prince Albert on Friday.

Midnapore.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

MIDNAPORE, 20.—It is the intention of the Incumbent and Churchwardens of St.
Paul's Church to complete the building,
and add a vestry thereto. At the same time they will have a porch placed outside instead of on the inside, which will increase the seat capacity. The shed recently blown down is also to be re-erected in a substantial manner and the whole will be fenced in.

I notice that teachers are invited for fencing in the school house, and fixing a gate. This will be an improvement, as at present cattle congregate round the building for shelter from sun or wind and do damage, and teacher, scholars and visitors
have to creep under barbed wire fencing to obtain access to the school. This latter may be fun to the scholars, but grief to the mothers when they view the torn pants, etc.

The School Inspector visited the school
on Tuesday and found everything in a satisfactory condition.

Mr. Henry B. Jones, a man of means recently arrived from England has bought the farm owned by Mrs. E. Bell. He has already purchased a large number of horses and cattle, and has had plans drawn out for the erection of a house and the necessary outbuildings for the proper conduct of dairy farm in conjunction with agriculture. Mr. Jones has been many months in Canada, visiting the eastern provinces and Manitoba, but the soil and climate of Alberta have so pleased him that he has pitched his tent here.

Crops of all descriptions could not look better; rain has fallen just at the right time and everything points to an abundant harvest. On Fish Creek peas have been in full bloom about ten days.

The woolen Mill being erected here is making satisfactory progress. The building and erection of the machinery are being proceeded with simultaneously, the former is now being roofed in, and the latter is nearly fitted up. Mr. Andrew Young is putting up the building, and to those who have seen his work on the Mid-napore school house, his name is sufficient guarantee that the building will be solid and good. Mr. Wm. H. Dyson, who is setting up the machinery finds it in first class order, notwithstanding the time it has been in the country. He expects to be ready for his carder in a few days and in a few more weeks to be turning out blankets, flannel, cloth, stockings and yarn. This will be a great boon to the sheep industry, and by providing a market for wool, will enable the small farmer to keep a few sheep, which up to the present he could not advantageously do. This mill will be able to work up about two-thirds of the probable crop of Alberta wool of this year, but we are informed that if the venture meets with a fair amount of support, the proprietors are prepared to increase the plant to an extent sufficient to render the export of any unnecessary.

After July 1st the mails will be taken from all the post offices between Calgary and Moquito creek on Thursday direct to New Oxley and McLeod, and on Tuesday's received direct from those places, as was the case some few years ago, instead of having to be sent by the circuitous route of Lethbridge and Medicine Hat. This is good, but why such an inconvenient change as that which has been in force the last two or three years, was ever made it is difficult to conceive, particularly as the two distinct services Calgary to Moquito Creek and McLeod to New Oxley could not have cost less than the original service Calgary to McLeod. It is supposed by many that the Government were hoodwinked by some selfish lease holder, who thought that such an inconvenience might help to keep settlement out. If such were the case it had no such effect, for the merits of land in Alberta are now widely known and settlers keep flocking in; and well is it for the cattle rancher that they do, otherwise the price of beef would not be 20 per cent higher than in the eastern markets, the very market which in the near future Alberta will supply.

Large droves of cattle have been brought up from the east lately and driven south.
It will be well for the owners if they recognize the fact that cattle will die if not provided with food. It is quite true that in three winters out of five, cattle can shift
for themselves, but every now and then comes a winter when they cannot find food.
To make cattle raising a success hay in sufficient quantities must be provided for bad years. If the winter is good it need not be fed, for if well put up it will keep for some years. The neglect to provide food is the cause of enormous loss, particularly in the winter of 1886-7 and is the cause of the comparatively short supply of beef today available for export. T. W. F.

The Body Found at Keith.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

The party that went up to Keith yesterday to make further search for the body
that had been seen on a rock in the Bow river on Sunday, were more successful than they were the day before. The searching party consisted of Mr. Schroder, who first saw the body, one N. W. M. P.
man and two men from the Eau Claire Mills. The body itself was utterly past recognition, but the men from the Eau Claire Mills knew the clothing to be that of the young Norwegian, Arnason, who was drowned with five others near Morley,
while engaged running a drive of logs,
now nearly a year ago. The remains being in too decomposed a condition to permit of bringing it to Calgary, were buried on the banks of the Bow river, near the Twin bridges. His age at the time of his death, was about eighteen years.

Elh Perkins' Lecture.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Elh Perkins lectured Monday night in the Royal Opera House. The hall was fairly well filled with a very appreciative audience. The lecturer was introduced in a very few words by A. R.
Shelton, president of the Calgary Institute. Without any introduction to his subject he launched out in a vein of wit and humor which kept his hearers in a constant laugh throughout. His theories were interspersed with anecdotes, mostly of "deformed truth," the very ridiculousness of which made every one laugh. The committee of management were very economical in the matter of free tickets, they did not even give one to Mrs. Perkins, and she was not present.
The gross receipts were close to $190,
and the expenses about $100 less or more, $75 of which was paid to the lecturer. The net amount which will remain for the benefit of the Institute being between $80 and $90 as near as can be learned at the time of writing.

Fatal Accident.

(From Saturday's Herald.)

A sad and fatal accident occurred yesterday afternoon on the Ricardo and Williams ranch, situated on the Bow River about 20 miles south-east of Calgary. Mr.
Yate Lee, a young English gentleman,
son of a London Barrister, came to Calgary from England in company with Mr.
Bevan, of the same ranch association about two weeks ago. We understand it was his intention to get thoroughly acquainted with stock raising in this district and at once went to practical work. Yesterday he went out mounted after dinner as he had previously been doing, to herd a band of horses. Nothing has so far been made public or is probably known by any one as to the particulars of how he met his death.
Not returning at 6 o'clock as expected to the house, parties went out to look for him, when his lifeless body was found on the ground with the rope he led his horse
with twisted round his wrist and attached to the horse. This rope is about 40 feet long. We are told there were no signs of his having been kicked; but he had evidently been dragged a considerable distance as his face was very badly scratched
and the skin and flesh torn in some places.
His clothes were also very badly torn.
The parties who found him, thought by the temperature of the body, that he must have been dead about two hours, when found. Mr. Ricardo hitched up his carriage as soon as he could, after the finding of the body, and leaving for Calgary about 8 p. m., reached here early this morning with the remains, which he took to the burial. Coroner Shelton was notified and an inquest appointed for two o'clock
this afternoon at the fort.

About 15 more excursionists from Ontario arrived by No. 1 express this morning. This about completes the number that were reported as ticketed for Calgary by the first and second of the Ontario excursion trains.

We notice by the City of Sherbrooke papers that Mr. A. C. Miquelon, son of our esteemed Government immigration agent, has been appointed deputy postmaster of that city. This is a well earned promotion. Mr. Miquelon having been appointed mail clerk on the Quebec Central Railway 10 years ago, which position he has since filled with credit to himself and satisfaction to the Department.

Col. A. G. Irvine, of Quebec City, the old and popular ex-Commissioner of the Northwest Mounted Police, is registered at the Royal Hotel. It will be remembered that some months ago the ex-Commissioner was sent out by the Ottawa Government on some difficult special Indian business into the Battleford country, which he discharged satisfactorily, but which proved rather heavy for his health. The Colonel says Calgary is the best place in Canada for restoration of health.

Three carriage loads of gentlemen from the east went out yesterday to examine the country south of Calgary, more for the purpose of learning the capabilities of the country from growing crops than to select land on that trip, as the places they went to the land is all taken up. Most of these have returned to town this afternoon and unite in saying that there is no doubt of the fertility of the soil, and they or others connected with them will locate here.

There will be a large influx of Menonites into this district this fall and next spring. The four gentlemen who came up here from Manitoba, whose names we published at the time, as representatives of 200 families that want to move here from Manitoba, have made a selection of several townships on Arrow creek. They have gone to Winnipeg to see if they can make satisfactory arrangements with the government land commissioner to get the land on block, if they do, a move will be made at once towards coming out here.

Rev. Leo Gaetz, of Red Deer, is in town today. He tells us that the gentlemen who went out with him to Red Deer are very much pleased with that part of the country. The strongest evidence of which that we can publish in the few words that we have time for this afternoon, is that six out of the seven who went out with Mr. Gaetz have located, and the other one is well enough satisfied with the country to locate there too, except for the objection of his better half to locate away from where there is a railway. Dear Madam, Red Deer won't be long without a railway.

An incident occurred after the close of Eli Perkins' lecture which may cause him to remember his visit to Calgary with more pleasure than attaches to his ordinary lecture engagements. When asked by a reporter how Mrs. Landon had enjoyed her drive during the afternoon, with the observation that she was not noticed at the lecture. Her husband replied that they had both enjoyed the drive and scenery very much, but that Mrs. Landon scarcely ever attended his lectures, in fact she had never heard him lecture more than three times since they were married. And how many times have you heard Mrs. Perkins lecture, may I enquire? Never, answered he, that I remember of, sure, no "exaggeration," not a "deformed truth," upon my word, said the orator, and you know I never state anything but facts. Well, said the reporter, the Calgary Institute will recommend you to the "Domestic Peace Society," of London, for a gold medal.

Thursday.

D. W. Davis, M. P., has returned from Banff and is stopping at the Royal Hotel.

Five more Ontario farmers in addition to the seven we mentioned yesterday, are on the way out this afternoon to Red Deer to look up land in that district to settle on.

Calgary's board fences and other prominent bill posters' placards are now receiving "coats of many colors," the Eastern cigar manufacturers having decided to advertise themselves in this way.

Mr. Alfred Carey has commenced the erection of a dwelling house for himself just east of the Union Hotel, on the corner of Atlantic Avenue and Drinkwater streets.

The Court of Revision commenced its sittings in the Council Chamber at 2 o'clock this afternoon. A majority of the Council constitutes the court for business.

Montana is contributing as well as Minnesota and Dakota to filling up the district of Alberta. This afternoon four farmers from Montana who have driven all the way from that territory to Calgary with teams and wagons, household goods, implements, etc., etc., left Calgary for the Red Deer district, where they have secured locations and will at once settle on the land.

The private palace car "Champlain" was dropped from No. one express from the East this morning. The occupants were Mrs. R. B. Angus, of Montreal and Miss Angus; Mr. Wanklyn, the mechanical superintendent of the C. P. R.; Mrs. Wanklyn and child. Mr. A. D. Braithwaite, manager of the Bank of Montreal, waited on the party with his carriage and took the ladies out for a drive. Their car was attached to a freight train at noon and they left for Banff, where Mrs. and Miss Angus, Mrs. Wanklyn and child will remain at the C. P. R. Hotel during the summer.

The Winnipeg Commercial says:—"A prominent cattle man in this city is at present experimenting in placing Eastern cattle on the Alberta ranges for fattening for Eastern markets. He has purchased in various parts of Ontario two thousand steers, these he is shipping to Calgary, some two thousand miles, where they will be fed up, after which they will be taken back to Ontario and slaughtered. In Ontario pasturage is limited while in the far west there is an almost illimitable area of grazing lands, and it is asserted it is most profitable to ship the cattle from Ontario to Calgary and back again and pay the freight charges on them for over four thousand miles for the sake of the free grazing, than to pasture them in Ontario. To take cattle two thousand miles to pasture is certainly a novel and striking idea in the business world. One thousand five hundred head of these cattle have already passed through the city, and are now grazing at the Quorn ranch. Another batch of 500 are now being collected in Ontario, and will pass through the city in a few days. They are carried on fast cattle trains that make almost as fast time as the express. Next fall the steers, after a summer's running over the prairies of Alberta, will pass through the city again on their way to the eastern markets."

Friday.

Rev. E. Keith Douglas, of London, Eng., is registered at the Royal Hotel.

Mr. Magnus Begg, Government Indian Agent at the Blackfoot reserve, is in town.

Mr. Wm. Pearce of the Dominion land board and his family have returned from the Pacific Coast.

Most gratifying results are coming out of the excursions from the Province of Ontario. Although only two out of the three excursions from the Queen Province of the Dominion have arrived at Calgary so far, it is estimated that at least one hundred of the excursionists have taken up land and will become permanent settlers. One more excursion train will be here in about three days, which will add still more to the number coming to reside here.

A telegram was sent yesterday by the mayor to H. H. Smith, Dominion Lands Commissioner at Winnipeg, asking him to open for settlement township 20, range 27 west of the fourth meridian. It is understood that this is one of the townships which the Menonite agents from Manitoba have asked the Government to reserve for them, but that several Ontario farmers from about Guelph had already made a choice of land in that township. All that is necessary for the Government to do is to set apart another township instead of 20 for the Menonites.

Mr. Wm. Goth and wife of Carlton Place, Ont., brother-in-law of Chief Dillabough, arrived from Ontario this morning by No. one express. Mr. Goth has come out here to look up a good land location, as he has a large family of sons to locate somewhere. While passing through Manitoba he looked at land, but found it too dear, if situated near any station. This gentleman is worth at least $25,000 and with his sons would make a valuable acquisition to this district. He reports, as all others do who pass through Manitoba, that the most fearful stories were told him about Calgary. All frozen up, nothing but Indians there, etc., etc., but the gentleman had made up his mind to come here, and he came. To his great satisfaction he has seen several white people since he arrived; lots of people, not living in huts; no ice on the streets and the mercury at 87 in the shade.

A sample of crude petroleum was brought into town yesterday and left at Mr. A. Grant's hardware store. It was brought in from where a very large deposit exists, the precise location of which is not generally known. There seems no doubt that it is on the Canadian side of the line in the Kootneys or the Crow's Nest Pass. We believe the discovery of this oil was made some time ago by Mr. Fayette French, of the firm of Carlin, Lake & Co., of Field; B. C. Some of the oil was sent to the Standard Oil Refining Works, Cleveland, Ohio, where it was tested. A sample was also sent to London, Ont., and tested. The one test giving 91 per cent, and the other 92 per cent, of pure oil. As soon as arrangements are made for refining and deodorizing this oil, it will be a great boon to the people of this country, who now burn oil which has to be hauled 2,000 miles by rail.

Mr. A. E. Otway Page, a farmer of means and influence at Ridgeway, Ont., arrived in Calgary yesterday morning. He is ticketed to Victoria, near which place on the Island of Vancouver he thought of purchasing a farm. But having heard something of Calgary from his old friends, Mr. A. Williams, barrister and Dr. Carroll, both of Welland, who stopped over at Calgary on a trip last fall. Mr. Page decided to see this town then go to Vancouver Island. In the morning he called at the HERALD office, also on Mr. Rowe, Mr. Murdoch and Mr. Fitzgerald. Learning that wherever Mr. Page located, twenty-five other Welland farmers would likely locate, he was persuaded to stay over at Calgary long enough to go out into the country and see for himself the crops and soil. So when he gets to Vancouver Island he would have a correct knowledge of this section, which no doubt will cause him to decide in favor of Alberta for a farming country.

The Mission Bridge is badly in need of repairs, a few nails and some pieces of plank being all that is necessary. Some slabs have been nailed over the holes which make it very awkward for parties crossing the bridge with loads. When repairs are attempted, why not have it done properly? Who is the caretaker, and why does he not see to it?

Yesterday was the longest day in the year. Were it not for the smoke that prevails at present, daylight would be visible in the northern sky all night, Calgary being within the twilight arc. There are some twenty-five days each summer in which if the weather is clear the reflection of the sun can be seen in the north all night.

A sad drowning case occurred yesterday afternoon, near the Quorn Ranch. A little daughter of Mrs. Wheatley's about one and a half years of age, just able to walk, slipped away from the house and got down to a little creek where the little one fell in and was drowned before it was missed, when found it was lying with its face on the bottom of the creek, life was extinct when it was found.

What is there in a name is a question often asked and not always satisfactorily answered. Shakespeare considered his purse as trash compared with his good name. The time is well remembered by many living when it was thought you could not get your boots blackened unless you had "Day and Martin's" liquid blacking, that you could not buy a silk hat fit to wear on the streets of London unless you got it at "Ashton's" or a calico print that would wash unless it were "Hoyles", or a pickle or a condiment fit for a gentleman's table unless they were put up by "Crosse & Blackwell" and so on through the category of things in every day use. Had these fallacies continued to govern the public, the world would often have been short of supply of the most necessary articles. The names of great manufacturers are often used by obscure makers who pay a royalty for the privilege of using them. Many of these obscure makers have cut loose from rented names and are engaged in establishing reputations of their own. Amongst these are Tulloch & Co., of Grace Church Street, London, who have acquired a reputation for preparing pickles and sauces, equal in every respect to Crosse & Blackwell's goods. Mr. F. Gillespie, the Tea Merchant of Calgary, has received a large shipment of these goods, which through having imported them direct and not charging anything for the name, he is able to sell at very low prices.

Mr. R. T. Wilson, of Dundas, a retired merchant and foundry man, who visited Calgary and a large portion of this district before going to the Pacific Coast three weeks ago, was here on his way east on Saturday, and he is so much pleased with the town and its surroundings he seemed almost inclined to call up his securities in the east and invest his capital here.

About twenty-five of the Ontario excursionists ticketed for Calgary were switched off at Danmore and went up to visit the Galt coal mines at Lethbridge. The Galt Railway Company gave them an invitation to take a free ride over the railway to their mines and back. They will have an opportunity of seeing the extent of fuel supply which that district alone will furnish, not to mention the almost numberless places where coal abounds in Alberta. As to the farming country which they will see, the people of this section are glad to have our friends from the East see every other place possible before they visit Calgary district, as we know they will like this section all the better after having seen every place to which their attention may be drawn.

Tuesday.

A bull made an attack on the sanctum of the "Tribune" this morning, but retreated in disorder after breaking one of the large sheets of glass lately put in the front of the office. This bull has been running riot ever since the town has been without a pound, frightening people on the streets and frequently emitting very strong music at night. Attracted no doubt by the high colored painting on the window, the window no doubt acting as a mirror, his bullship thought he had met an antagonist worthy his "horn" and let dive at the window. When a hole was made, he saw that he was not in Spain, that it was not a bull ring but an editor's office he had invaded and remembering the maxim that the "pen is mightier than the sword," considered prudence as the better part of valor, called it a draw fight and withdrew. It was not long however before the Chief of Police and a posse of mounted cow boys were on his path. He showed the boys good time but finally surrendered unconditionally and was shut into McNaughton's corral. The owner soon claimed the captured beast and assumed the cost amounting to $15 or $18. The Chief of Police now bewails his black thorn, which remains in three divisions.
